WHAT WILL FOLLOW FRANCE?

The announcement of the signing of a treaty of peace with the conditions imposed upon France, which appeared in our columns on Saturday has not up to this writing been understood and it is possible that the report was premature and that the stipulations may have been accurately stated. There is little doubt however that all the preliminary negotiations have been agreed to, and that the treaty has been duly ratified, and that the war is at an end. We assume that the signing of the treaty has been agreed to, and that the treaty has been duly ratified, and that the war is at an end. We assume that the signing of the treaty has been agreed to, and that the treaty has been duly ratified, and that the war is at an end.

The late Premier talks of a "Chief Senator" in the House of Representatives, and evidently in reference to Butler's Music Hall speech, commends its author with the Chairman of a Committee of which he is not even a member, and whose functions he greatly overstates.

The President issued a proclamation on Saturday declaring that the correspondence of similar action on the part of the Government of Portugal, all discriminating duties upon goods imported in Portuguese vessels other than those of their production, are discontinued from the 17th of the present month.

The Legislature of Indiana has finally amended the divorce laws of the State, so that under the law, as amended, where the cause of divorce has arisen in another State, the petitioner must prove bona fide residence of three years instead of one in the State, and that the application for a divorce is made by the husband.

Gentlemen who returned from San Domingo on the 21st say that the associated press dispatch that the Commissioners had decided not to send a preliminary report because of the possibility that information yet to be obtained may change their present opinions, was probably not to be intended to intimate that any new discoveries have yet been made, but the Commissioners propose visiting Hayti and do not wish to commit themselves to opinions based on a one-sided and partial survey of the people.

At a meeting of the Boston Board of Trade on Friday the direct issue was made on the question of free trade in ships, and the proposition was almost unanimously rejected. Resolutions were adopted requesting Congress to institute measures for the encouragement of commerce and navigation.

THIRD SESSION.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.

SENATE.

Mr. Howard presented the credentials of his successor, Thomas H. Ferry.

A bill to amend the act to amend the statutes relating to patents and copyright, was passed.

The bill providing for the celebration of the 100th anniversary of American Independence at Philadelphia in 1876, was passed.

Mr. Conkling's amendment to provide for a similar celebration at New York was rejected by a large majority.

The Post-office Appropriation bill was taken up and the amendments from the Committee on Appropriations discussed.

Several amendments were offered and tabled and pending discussion on increasing the salary for mail service between California and China and Japan, $7,000,000, the Senate went into Executive session and without final action.

HOUSE.

Mr. Hooper of Maine, Chairman of the Committee on Ways and Means, presented a letter from Commissioner Pleasonton, stating that in view of the action of the Senate and the House in the case of the Revenue Act of 1876, he had naturally delayed until the last moment before presenting any proposition in connection with the assessment of that act, but that longer delay on his part was impossible.

He then presented a bill to amend the act of 1876, and the House proceeded to its consideration.

Mr. Hooper gave notice that he would at the earliest opportunity move to go into the consideration of the bill for the purpose of taking up the bill to amend the Revenue Act of 1876.

EXPLOSION.
